

Dan Quinn has been a Winchester resident since 2009, where he lives with his wife and his son, a sophomore at WHS. He is an active member of the Winchester Highlanders running club, and Parish of the Epiphany. Professionally, Dan is the co-founder and CEO of Ten Bridge Communications, a 45-person Boston-based communications and marketing agency focused on the biotech industry. Dan is a graduate of Providence College. Dan's long-time inspiration has been his mother, Sue Quinn, who will turn 90 in February and continues to take college classes, sing in her choir and act as role model to her 40 grand- and great-grandchildren. Dan is excited about this opportunity to give back to the community and help promote meaningful engagement and connection with all parts of our community.
