

The Rev. Eileen Morris has lived in Winchester for 29 of the last 45 years. She studied voice at Boston Conservatory of Music, Dance Drama (now Boston Conservatory at Berklee College of Music). She has an undergraduate degree in Business from the University of Phoenix and a Masters in Divinity from Andover Newton School of Theology (now Andover Newton Seminary at Yale Divinity School). She has worked in various levels of accounting and finance (1973-1983), and accounting software solutions (1986 – 2001). For the last 17 years, Eileen served as Minister in the United Church of Christ; three years as an Associate Pastor Wellesley Hills, UCC, and 14 years as the Senior Pastor Slatersville, RI UCC. She retired and returned to Winchester in September 2021. She has served on the Board of Directors for the following: Protestant Chaplaincy Board Newton Wellesley Hospital (2004-2007), Rhode Island Conference, United Church of Christ (2016-2020), including the following subcommittee work: Financial and Personnel, and Rhode Island Ministerial Assistance Fund 2016-2021.